MA 3659/2012

OA 4100/2012

Item No. 52

21.12.2012

Present : Shri M.K. Bhardwaj, counsel for applicant.

This MA has been filed by the applicant, for granting the interim relief in the matter. He has stated that earlier, when we have considered the case, we have not granted the interim relief sought by the applicant and the case has now been adjourned to 02.01.2013.

2. By this MA, applicant brought to our notice that in the similar case bearing No.1413/HP/2012, the Chandigarh Bench of this Tribunal has passed the following interim directions on 17.12.2012:

& MA 1249/12

Rajinder Singh and Others Vs. UOI

17.12.2012

Present: Shri M.K. Bhardwaj, Counsel for he applicants.
Shri D.R. Sharma, Counsel for the respondents.

1. Shri D.R. Sharma appearing on behalf of the respondents requests adjournment to file counter as also to react to the interim relief plea. The learned counsel for the applicants states that the interim relief pleas deserves to be considered urgently in view of the fact that the last date for the acceptance of applications for appearing at the relevant examination is 26.12.2012 and, in the absence of a direction in the context, the respondents would not entertain the applications of the applicants in continued obsession of their stance of their averred ineligibility.

2. In the peculiar circumstances of the case, we deem it just and appropriate to order that the respondents shall allow access to the applicants at the relevant examination provisionally.

3. List on 11.1.2013.

4. DASTI.

(Ranbir Singh)
Member (A)

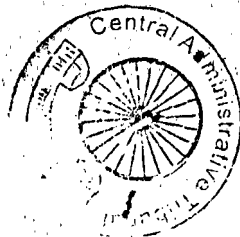

(Justice S.D. Anand)
Member (J)

3. In parity of the aforesaid order, we allow the applicant to appear in the aforesaid examination provisionally. MA is accordingly disposed of.
