Dear Shri Ravi Ji,

I am in receipt of your letter under reference, wherein you have communicated the decision of your Association to re launch the trade union action to persue the vital demands for the executives of BSNL. It is unfortunate that the written commitment given to you after your last agitation held in the month of July-August '13 has not been honoured by BSNL management and you are being forced to agitate again.

The issues like CPSU cadre hierarchy, Superannuation benefit for BSNL recruits, higher pay scale for E1 & E2 grades etc are of vital importance and our association also, individually and under the banner of United Forum has been pursuing the issues since long.

But it is to be appreciated that non settlement of the issues are directly affecting the entire membership of your Association and the BSNL recruitees, hence we respect the decision taken by your Association to launch the TU actions from 3rd Feb'14 and assure our whole hearted support for success of the agitation. What is important is the settlement of these vital issues and not through which Association or Forum it is achieved, and we sincerely want that.

Reiterating our support for success of the cause

With best wishes

Yours sincerely,
-sd-
